CAN YOU HEAR ME? JOINS 2019 GIVING TUESDAY MOVEMENT

The Non-Profit Hopes to Raise Funds for Mental Health Awareness

SACO, ME – October 30, 2019 – Can You Hear Me? (CYHM?) will be joining the Giving Tuesday movement occurring on December 3, 2019. In the upcoming 2020 year, CYHM? aims to raise enough funds to partner with nationwide music festivals and artists. Giving Tuesday takes place annually on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving with the goal of urging millions of people to donate to their chosen causes and local communities. By participating in the Giving Tuesday initiative, CYHM? urges donors to help eliminate the stigma surrounding mental health and foster safe, supportive communities through the power of giving back.

This year marks CYHM?'s first experience partaking in the Giving Tuesday movement. The decision to join came as a result of observing Giving Tuesday's profound success in previous years with other non-profit organizations. "The Giving Tuesday movement allows organizations such as CYHM? to reach individuals that urgently need help finding a supportive community," stated Jessica Coro, CYHM? Founder. "This year's contributions will help us make a lasting impact on the lives of hundreds of teens and young adults. Through the generosity of Giving Tuesday, we can spread our message further and directly help those struggling with difficult issues."
